300 PORTLAND CARPENTERS STRIKE FOR GRIEVANCE

Portland, Me., Jan. 2.—Over 300 carpenters of the Russell Shipbuilding Company have left their jobs here because they demand that carpenters should not be forced to fill vacancies in the building engineer department, where practically all engineers have left in protest of labor trouble now fast spreading. An emergency meeting of the striking carpenters was held here today. A statement was made that the strike will not end until the grievances are settled.

A Strengthening, Invigorating Tonic

For Old People who are feeble.
For Young People who are weak.
For Nursing Mothers.
For Pale, Sickly Children.
For Nervous Depression.
For Low Spirits.
For Loss of Appetite.
For Weakness After Grip or Influenza.

GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill Tonic

The Old Standard Tonic which Builds up the System by Purifying & Enriching the Blood.

GROVE'S TASTELESS Chill Tonic is simply IRON & QUININE suspended in syrup. So Pleasant Even Children Like It.

The Quinine and Iron does not dissolve in the syrup, therefore, does not make the syrup bitter.

You do not taste the bitter Quinine or the Iron because both are completely covered with syrup when swallowed.

GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL Tonic Restores the blood to its Natural Normal, Healthy Condition and gives it the necessary power of resistance.

You can soon feel its Strengthening, Invigorating Effect. Price 60c.

Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about $1. and have a better remedy than the doctor made kind. Really done.

If you consult the various proprietors of every cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real cough power as there is in this simple homemade cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Glycerine, 1 pint of water, and fill the bottle with syrup using either granulated sugar or corn syrup. Seal the bottle. The remedy is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy anywhere for five times the money. Throat pain, hoarseness, voice, and strong preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the raw, throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes as well as easily that it is really soothing. It breaks the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and tracheitis, asthma there is nothing better.

How to Keep Strong and Healthy
Thinks Epidemic of "Flu" Found Many With Low Vitality
Matter of Prevention—Take Tonic of Iron, Herbs and Roots.

If your health is perfect, this may not interest you. If your health is not perfect, however, you are either sick or "partially sick." If sick, you need a doctor's advice and medicine. If "partially sick," you surely will benefit by taking a real medicine tonic, consisting of alcohol or herb forming drugs. If you are weak, nervous, tired, sluggish, and get no strength from your food you need a tonic.

If neuritis, pain, headache, backache, stomach distress about your bowels in your crying head. If fatigue, hysterical, sleepless and you worry and feel without reason, you need a tonic. If you are thin, anemic, "blue-blooded" and ill humored, if you cannot hold your weight, if you tire with slight exertion and you are impatient because of your inability to live and enjoy life as others do, surely a tonic of iron, root and herb extracts will help you.

Thousands like you have found strength and cheerfulness by taking three grains of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. They increase your risk of fatal anemia, leaving your weakened vitality, and make you able to enjoy your life. Add your strength to the health of your family and the health of the world. Try Making Your Own Cough Remedy

You can save about 25¢ and have a better remedy than the ready-made kind. Ready-made.

If you combine the curative properties of every known "cough" remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes. It is a little bit of gel from any drug store 25¢ bottle of Pineapple Juice, a little bit of all the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar, or crystallized sugar, or any other sugar desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Take this recipe: Boil, pour and syrup preparation sets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It dissolves the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. After a day's use you will need no over-the-counter cough and bronchitis medicine there is nothing better. Pines is a fine, white, concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe colds and disappointments. Ask your druggist for "The Pineapple Juice" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction. If you are weak, nervous, tired, sluggish and get no strength from your food you need a tonic. If your health is perfect, this may not interest you. A NEW SERIAL OF YOUNG MARRIED LIFE

HILL'S
CASCARA QUININE
BROMIDE

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

Please, Mother! It's Nasty!
Give Me a Candy Cascaret!

TO MOTHERS! Instead of the dreaded dose of castor oil, drops, calomel or pills, give your children Cascarets and save money, worry and trouble. Children love Cascarets because they taste like candy. Nothing else acts so gently but surely on the child's little stomach, liver and bowels.

When one of the kiddies has a white tongue, tainted breath, sour stomach or a cold; when cross, bilious, feverish, constipated, remember a Cascaret to quickly "work" away the nasty bile, sour fermentation and poisons should always be the first treatment given. Cascaret never gripe the tender bowels, never injure, and never disappoint the worried mother. Each 10 cent box of Cascarets contain directions for children's dose from one year old and upwards. Also for adults.

Something Attempted

"Say, we can't find her," why on earth do you persist your wife to go round looking after other women that you has made a man of you? or never let your wife say anything like that?"

"No," remarked Jack, with a merry chuckle, "but I have heard her say on more than one occasion that she had tried her hardest!"

The big thing, which is being talked over at Hanover by the faculty and students alike, is the abolishment of all eligibility races as far as they affect any of Uncle Sam's fighters for the remainder of their collegiate careers in sports.

Graduate Manager Horace G. Pender, one of the best informed athletic authorities in the country, is father of the proposition.

High Time That We Get Down to Practical Americanism

The French Government has stated its attitude. Clemenceau intends to demand not only Alsace-Lorraine, but German territory as far as the Rhine. He intends to invade Russia.

It was also announced to the French Parliament that publicity will be given to the Peace Conference and the Clemenceau cabinet would accept the principle of a League of Nations.

The British Government has also announced, by degrees, its attitude.

The British Government will accept the principle of a League of Nations.

It will also insist upon England's naval supremacy, and upon the English navy's right to control and blockade neutrals, as well as belligerents, in time of war.

Incidentally, England will benevolently assimilate Egypt, Syria, Palestine, Mesopotamia, Persia, the German African colonies and the German merchant marine and sea trade, and the Dodecanesos.

Italy will insist upon the annexation of the Tyrol, Trieste, Fiume, Dalmatia, Albania and the Dodecanesos.

British and Italian troops will aid French troops in the invasion of Russia, and British naval forces will blockade Russia, in the Baltic Sea and Black Sea, and transport invading forces to the Baltic provinces and to the Ukraine and the Caucasus regions.

No wonder that the French Socialist deputies after the announcement of the Russian policy rose and shouted:

Well, then, the war is beginning all over again!

We Americans cannot control the ambitions and the rapacities of the Allied Powers, and Mr. Wilson's optimistic belief that his admirable idealism is going to result in a substantial change in the nature of European diplomacy and intrigue and acquiescence is bound to be disappointed.

He will be feted, cheered, paid royal honors, and have any number of opportunities to talk eloquently.

But there will be no open diplomacy, no publicity as to the PRIVATE peace conferences of which the PUBLIC peace conference will be only a formal ratification; and there will be no League of Nations other than a political alliance of certain European Powers IN AN EFFORT TO DOMINATE THE WORLD.

We are confident that events will justify this forecast.

We went into this European war expressly avowing that we did not want to get anything, and now that our riches and our military and naval reinforcements have snatched the Allies from defeat and made them victors, we will get nothing—just that.

Very good. Let it go at that.

But since France, England and Italy are now resolved to partition among themselves territories which are not French, English or Italian; since the doctrine of self-determination has been thrown on the scrap-heap; and since a new war is to be waged upon the Federated Soviet Republic of Russia, IT IS TIME WE BROUGHT OUR ARMIES HOME from Europe and let Europe's rulers and diplomats play out their old game of grab and divide without any further assistance from democratic America.

We have lost enough American lives.

We have lost enough American money.

It is time to get out of a bloody and ruinous game in which we can only lose MORE LIVES, lose MORE MONEY and get MORE "NOTHING."

Especially, our army and navy should have no part in the invasion of Russia.

We are not at war with the Russian Soviet Republic. The United States cannot be at war with any government without a declaration of war by the American Congress.

NO PUBLIC OFFICIAL HAS AUTHORITY to send American troops to fight the Soviet Government in Russia or any other Government that may rise to power in Russia, in Eastern Europe, in Germany or anywhere else on the face of the globe, unless he has first had the mandate of the Congress.

The Constitution is express, clear and unmistakable upon this matter.

And if the Constitution did not forbid such a use of American troops, the people of the United States are almost unanimously opposed to an invasion of Russia or any other disturbed country in Europe.

THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES WANT THEIR SOLDIERS BACK HOME.

The people of the United States want an end put to these enormous war expenses.

The people of the United States have enough taxes to pay, enough bureaucrats to support, enough of autocratic government and more than enough of this intermeddling with European politics.

We Americans are a sensible, practical people, and now that the war fever has cooled off everybody is anxious to get down to normal conditions, to our usual ways of earning our bread and butter and to old and well-tried international policy of minding our own American business and letting European nations mind their own European business.

We know that eight Americans in ten feel just that way today. Lofly idealism is an admirable thing, but practicalities come much closer home to the average human being.

The WAR is over.

Now end this WAR COST and TAXATION.

Bring our soldiers home to their folks.

Let the potatoes of Europe strive with the potatoes of Europe.

But let us have peace and peace conditions here in our own land.

OH, WELL, IT ISN'T MINE

"It isn't mine, what do I care?" How would you like to have a tenant or employee who reasoned thus?

How would you like to have a roomer who spilled ink on your rug, cologne on your maingown dress, and burned holes in the curtains and bedding by carelessness and acted looser than words, "What do I care, it isn't mine?"

How would you like to lend your choicest book and have it come home soiled and unmarked?

How would you like to extend the courtesies of your office and find the recipient of favors ensconced indefinitely at your desk on a lousy day?

It is a little different if the house, the business, the articles injured or the time lost is yours, isn't it?

Well, it should not be different. It makes no sort of difference who is the responsible person, it is just as disagreeable whichever way you look at it.

Because it isn't yours is the very reason you should have honor enough to do your best in care, and show you appreciate the golden rule "do as you would be done by."

IF THROUGH the year. THAT came yesterday. I MAY. ON EVERY night. LAY DOWN my head. WHERE'E I sleep. AND LIE there. WITH MY mind awake. AND KNOW. THAT NOWHERE. LIVES A man OR WOMAN. OR A child. WHO SUFFERS grief. BECAUSE of me. OR ACT of mine. I SHALL be glad. AND IF. WITH EARLY morn. I SHALL awake. AND LIE there. WITHOUT ONE regret. FOR WHAT I've done. OR PLAN to do. I SHALL be glad. BUT THAT won't do. AND THOUGH it is. THAT I'll be glad. FOR JUST the things. I HAVEN'T done. I'LL MISS the joy. THAT I might have. FOR OTHER things. I MIGHT have done. AND SO it is. IF I may know. ON EVERY day. THROUGHOUT this year. WHEN THAT day ends. THAT ON that day. I'VE STOPPED.

ALONG the path I take. AND LENT a hand. TO OTHERS. WEAKER THAN myself. AND STEERED their steps. TO WHAT it was. THEIR VISION sought. IF I may know. I HAVE done this. I SHALL be glad. AND SATISFIED. AND THIS I'll ask. THAT WHAT it is. THAT'S GOOD in me. AND BIDS me help. SHALL GROW in strength. AND WHAT it is. THAT'S BAD in me. AND THOUGH it is. I SHALL WEAKER grow. ON TO the end. THAT I'll be stronger. WHEN THE year is done.

ANALYSIS OF JEALOUSY AND THE CURE

By Mrs. Wilson Woodrow

"SET me as a seal upon thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm; for love is as strong as death, jealousy is cruel as the grave."

That verse of exquisite poetry came into my mind the other day after receiving a letter from a girl, in which she confessed that she suffered tortures of jealousy. She says:

"Will you please tell me what can overcome my past fault, jealousy?"

"I am past twenty years of age," she goes on, "and should have better sense, but I cannot seem to conquer this dreadful enemy."

"In order to give you an idea of how it affects me, I will tell you some of the things of which I am jealous—friends, both men and women, favors bestowed on others, attention to any one except myself."

"You see, I am not sparing myself; for I know only too well that I am a victim of consuming jealousy and am only too anxious to overcome it."

"I know, too, that I am jealous lots of times when I have no cause. For instance, I am jealous at times of some person paying attention to another when I have no possible right to expect it for myself. You see how hopeless I am, but I do hope you will be able to help me."

Might I add that I never, or at least very seldom—for I may as well be truthful—suffer from my jealousy? I succeed pretty well in concealing it. But, oh, if I only knew some way of overcoming it!

"FLORA."

"Poor, little Flora, with the Green Eyes," your letter gave me a different idea of jealousy from any I had ever held before, and I immediately sat down and began to think about it.

What is jealousy anyway? It is evidently not one of our little of the flesh, neither a disease of the mind, but rather of the emotions— one of those ailments which are psychological and which grow by indulgence.

Why do you feel jealous of your friends? Because you think you are losing something that should belong to you. Why are you jealous of favors bestowed on others? Because you want to be the recipient of all the favors that are being passed around. Why do you feel injured when you see some one in whom you have no interest paying attention to another to whom you are equally indifferent? Because you want all the attention that any one has to give.

Those are the only conclusions to be drawn from your statements, but they are so absurd that you will laugh when you see them. You will say: "No, of course I do not mean that. It is just that when I see those things I feel jealous in spite of myself."

The same thing was said to the writer by a man who ships tens of thousands of carloads every year, has an annual income of more than twenty millions and owns scores of thousands of railroad shares.

"Big business" men will gradually realize that THEY more than any other class of citizens are interested in government ownership of railroads and an adequate transportation system. After THEY realize it the thing will be done.

Politicians of America, be warned by English elections and look out for the soldier in politics.

Asquith, former Prime Minister, to whom Clemenceau gives credit for taking England into the war, was beaten in the parliamentary election. The man who beat him was Colonel Spill, a Scotch landowner, previously twice defeated by Asquith. He had been in France fighting for four years. That settled the question and settled Asquith.

When gentlemen are marching home with war records, service stripes and the deserved gratitude of enthusiastic voters, including three or four millions, young men released from the army, civilians will have to make way for military men in office.

It won't make much difference what you have done, if you didn't fight.

Good news for the new year.

"Employees in all departments of the telegraph system under government control receive substantial increases in pay."

There is an argument for government ownership. The increased pay means better conditions for thousands of families, better business, the thousands of shares. It means to the population what irrigation means to land. Government ownership on a fair basis of purchase will benefit every legitimate business and other interests.

CAPTAIN COLLINS, HERO—AND RASCAL?

By Mrs. Wilson Woodrow

Captain Glen Collins has had a strange career. This brave and distinguished officer, who was the first to see the flag on the roof of New York and is now in the front of the nation, was recently described by Asquith, former Prime Minister, as "a scoundrel and a rascal."

It is a little different if the house, the business, the articles injured or the time lost is yours, isn't it?

Well, it should not be different. It makes no sort of difference who is the responsible person, it is just as disagreeable whichever way you look at it.

Because it isn't yours is the very reason you should have honor enough to do your best in care, and show you appreciate the golden rule "do as you would be done by."
